

Uncompany, Thanks you

After another year of working hard, connecting great companies and agencies with great freelancers we wanted to extend a virtual high-five and say “thank you” for being such a wonderful client and partner. This year we’ve each picked out a charity that has made a difference in our lives and are donating to them on behalf of the clients that have made a difference in our business. We wish you all the happiest of holidays and look forward to our continued relationship in 2022!

Raleigh, NC

Gigi's Playhouse - Maari Casey, CEO

I support them because growing up with a Down syndrome brother and now caring for a Down syndrome adult, I see the need for a community that supports parents as well as children and adults with disabilities. GiGi's Raleigh and soon to be GiGi's Cary is continuing to grow their mantra of “educate. inspire. believe.” to a all communities across our country. gigisplayhouse.org/

Orange Tennis Club - John Pelphey, Director of Operations

I've been and member and coach for 7 years. I've seen the benefits of providing affordable access to tennis in the community. OTC has built a strong junior program that provides internship opportunities for high schoolers and free scholarships and racquets to kids who want to learn but might not be able to afford the monthly cost. OTC is a 501c3 non-profit operating in a public park in Hillsborough, NC. orangetennisclub.com/

Raleigh City Farms - Richelle Stewart, Client Relationship Manager

One of my desires is to see all members of a community thrive through healthy and local food access. It often seems unattainable but every little bit counts. I've volunteered at RCF since moving to Raleigh a couple years ago and regularly support their farm stand when it's in season. We all deserve to have access to food that is good for us. raleighcityfarm.org/

Wounded Warrior Project - Kate Connors, Freelancer Relationship Manager

Growing up in a family that has had generations upon generations of members serving in the armed forces, supporting military based non-profits has always been a staple in giving back. To help provide for families and service men and women who have served our country in an effort to protect our freedoms and liberties is but a small ask in life.
